

INVITES YOU TO OUR NEXT: LUNCH & LEARN

6Y]b[X]ZZYbha U_YgUX]ZZYbW'9U]b[X]gcfXfYgUa cb[ghX]j YfgY'dcddi `U]cbg
2.0 CEUS

Guest Speaker: `DUi `U'9Xk UfXg! ; Unz]Y Xz'@D7Gz'@D7z'798Gz'B77

February 21, 2020
11:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

$25 for iaedp members
$35 for non-members
$15 students (with ID)
includes LUNCH

Maggiano's Restaurant 203 Westshore Plaza, Tampa

Objectives:

h

h

h

h) du t

p diverse populations.

RSVP by February 17th
wkourtney@outlook.com

Or call Chapter President Kourtney Gordon, MS, RD/LD, CEDRD at (727) 449-0300

Special Thanks to our Event Sponsors:

Viamar, Center For Discovery, Renfrew, and Monte Nido and Affiliates

iaedp Tampa Bay does not endorse an individual sponsor or treatment facility or their treatment philosophies.

Paula Edwards-Gayfield, LPCS, LPC, CEDS, NCC

Paula Edwards-Gayfield, LPCS, LPC, CEDS, NCC, is the Regional Assistant Vice President at The Renfrew Center, overseeing clinical and administrative operations at the Atlanta, GA; North New Jersey; Orlando, FL; and West Palm Beach, FL locations. A Licensed Professional Counselor in Oklahoma and LPC Supervisor in North Carolina, she received her Master's degree in Counseling from the UNC at Charlotte. Ms. Edwards-Gayfield has extensive experience working with adolescents, adults and families, with special interest in the treatment of eating disorders, women's issues, relationship concern, mood and anxiety disorders, and life adjustments. A National Certified Counselor, she is a member of the American Counseling Association, the Oklahoma Counseling Association, Oklahoma Eating Disorder Association, and is certified with the International Association of Eating Disorder Professionals (iaedp). Paula currently serves as a Co-Chair of iaedp's African American Eating Disorder Professionals Committee. Ms. Edwards-Gayfield is a frequent presenter at local and national conferences, primarily discussing eating disorders and diversity.

